Tranwell Woods

Schonbrunn, Gubeon Wood, Tranwell Woods, Morpeth, Northumberland, NE61 6BH

A fabulous, stone built, detached bungalow, extremely rare to the market, situated in the highly exclusive Gubeon Wood.

Built by the current owners circa 32 years ago, Schonbrunn occupies an impressive, landscaped garden site extending to approximately 3 acres and including lovely patio terraces, walkways lined with formal box hedging and a beautiful Japanese Garden with large ornamental pond.

The property is presented to an excellent standard internally, with stunning open plan dining room, lounge and orangery creating an ideal entertaining space with garden views and excellent interior design.

Offering fantastic car storage, with a large stone built garage accommodating four plus cars and built to a very high standard with a lovely clock tower above, as well as a large detached workshop, which could easily be used as an additional double plus garage, and large gardener's workshop and store.

Schonbrunn is a very special and unique property for which we strongly recommend an early viewing.
